Salaries of Staff: $243,397 - Tangible dollar benefits from Records Management Projects: $1,104,986

The secomplishments listed below were selected as representative and are by no means all inclusive.

- 1. Presented four Shelf Filing Workshops to 137 Agency employees to acquaint them with advantages of using this type of equipment to save space, filing time and equipment costs. Twenty-five shelf file installations were made which decreased floor space requirements 65%; increased filing capacity by 42% and released for other uses over 500 pieces of filing equipment.
- 2. In collaboration with OTR presented three Subject-Filing Workshops to 131 Agency employees. These workshops emphasized elimination of unneeded records and presented the uniform Agency system for administrative records. Installed 22 subject filing systems in various offices in the DDS, DDI, and DDP areas.
- 3. Developed disposition standards for the retention and disposal of intelligence collections produced by most unabers of the USIB Community. As a result, controls over the retention of large quantities of intelligence material were established and CIA can now destroy them on a scheduled basis. Over 1000 feet of records were destroyed immediately.
- 4. Developed 145 new forms, improved 206 existing forms and made 171 forms obsolete.
- 5. Received 15,607 feet of inactive records at the Records Center making committee receipts of over 103,000 feet or the equivalent of 12,875 four drawer safes with a replacement value of over five million six hundred thousand dollars.
- 6. Agency offices destroyed 21,803 feet of records, a destruction increase of 33% over the previous Fiscal Year. This, plus the transfer of 15,607 feet of records to the Records Center, resulted in a significant 17% reduction in record holdings in Headquarters offices during FY 1961.
- 7. Completed four large scale Records Management projects. Two in the Office of Security, one in CAS/DDP and one in TSD/DDP. Some of the benefits were:
  - a. Rescheduling of ECD's for badge processing.
  - b. Storing of files in card cabinets rather than in elevator files as requested by the Badge Office.
    - c. Established a full-time Records Officer position.
    - d. Integrated overt and covert files into one series.
